Honorable Homer M. Adkins, Governor

State of Arkansas

State Capitol Building

Little Rock, Arkansas

Dear Governor Adkins:

I am delivering to you Senate Bill 97 by Senator Crawford, also Senate Bill 296 by Senator Gordon. Through error these bills were not enrolled and delivered to you within the time and manner provided by law, but they were passed by both houses and should have been enrolled and delivered to you.

On account of error these two bills were erroneously listed as dying on the balendar and the error was not discovered until today.

Respectfully yours,

(Signed) VIRGIL RAMSEY

Dear Governor Adkins:

I am delivering to you Senate Bill 46 by Senator Gooch. This bill was passed by both houses and enrolled and delivered to your office and later the return to the Senate was requested which request you granted on March 4, and the bill remained with the Secretary without any further Senate action.

It is my opinion that this bill died on the Calendar but I am giving it to you to make whatever disposition that you think proper.

Respectfully yours,
